

AMADA Modern Slavery Act Statement 2018

We, Amada United Kingdom Limited ("Amada UK"), are a part of the global Amada Group of Companies, with our parent company's head office in Japan. Amada UK has an annual turnover in excess of £36m.

Our primary activity is the distribution of Amada sheet metal machinery and the service of the same.

As a group of companies, we are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships. We have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and human trafficking and are committed to upholding the principles encompassed in the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

We will regularly assess risk related to issues of human trafficking, modern slavery and forced labour and conduct internal auditing as to whether such risk lies within our supply chain and take any step required to prevent human trafficking, modern slavery and so forth in terms of compliance with the Modern Slavery Act. We will undertake training with specific employees engaged in managing our supply chain, to ensure that they are equipped with the necessary knowledge and awareness to correctly assess the risk within our supplier base and to prevent issues stated above.

We will also liaise with other Amada Group of Companies to ensure that their suppliers are monitored regularly in respect of compliance with the Modern Slavery Act. For financial year 2018/19 we have created an internal role of Compliance Manager to carry out internal risk assessments, audits of our supply chain and training for key staff.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31st March 2018. The board of directors of Amada United Kingdom Limited delegated approval of this statement on its behalf to the Managing Director, at its board meeting on 27th September 2018.
